Board Responsibilities

In order to be nominated for the Board of Governors of CACJ, nominees must acknowledge that: Governors are expected to promote CACJ's specific purposes, attend and be prepared for Board meetings typically four (4) meetings per year, participate in CACJ programs, solicit new members, and serve as an active member on one or more committees or perform tasks designated by the President or the Board. The nominee should understand that, absent good cause, Governors not attending two of the four major Board meetings each year are subject to removal.
